

MCQ 10 marks

1. Cigarette smoking is responsible for greatest exposure to _____ (CO₂/CO/NO₂/NO)
2. _____ binds to hemoglobin and reduces oxygen carrying capacity of blood. (CO/ NO/NO₂/CO₂)
3. The greatest industrial disaster leading to serious air pollution took place in? (London/Bhopal/Delhi/Dhaka)
4. Air pollution increased in 20th century due to_____ and _____.
5. _____ radiation affects the ability of plants to capture light during photosynthesis. (Heat /Solar/ UV/ Microwave).
6. _____ are similar in structure to CFCs but contain bromine instead of chlorine (Halon/halogens/hydrogels/hydroxides)
7. Ozone depletion is especially pronounced in _____ North Pole/ South the Pole.
8. In the stratosphere, unfiltered ultraviolet radiation severs chemical bonds releasing Chlorine from CFCs and this attacks _____ molecule (CFCs/ Oxygen/ Ozone/ Bromine)
9. Arsenic deposit in 24 Parghanas is prominent (T/F)
10. Marble cancer is due to growth of (fungal/bacterial)

Short questions any three 15 marks

1. What happens to pollutants in air?
2. Why air pollution is more harmful than other pollutions?
3. What do you know about marble cancer?
4. What are the theories behind arsenic deposit in 24 Parghanas of West Bengal?
5. What do you know about London Smog incident?
6. As a control measure for preventing water pollution a new technology is developed called Root Zone Process. Describe the process.

